

STATE BATTLES WITH DEFENSE FOR DECISION

Assistant District Attorney Says
Judge Would Meet Wishes of World by Capital Sentence
to Franks Stayers

SICK, NOT INSANE

Bachrach Also Says State's Alie-
ins Did Not Take Proper Opportunity to Examine Leopold and Loeb

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, Aug. 21. — An impassioned plea that Nathan Leopold and Edward George Bremer be executed for the murder of Robert Francis, followed by a dispassionate discussion of the merits of the case, marked the opening of the trial
today in the federal court here.
The former was given by Joseph Savage, assistant state attorney,
a direct demand that the effort
be made to secure the death penalty for the boys.
The latter came from Walter Bachrach, junior counsel for the defense, who began the final summing up of the case.
Mr. Savage pictured Judge Caverly as meeting the wishes of the community and the world at large and as upholding the majesty of the law by decreeing that Leopold and Loeb die by the noose.
Mr. Savage referred to the defendants as "beasts." He declared they considered themselves "supermen,"
above the law of God and man.
The assistant prosecutor ridiculed
the testimony of defense witnesses, hinting that their findings of childish pliancy in the defendants was impertinent to the intelligence of the court.
Savage Related Details of Plot.
Mr. Bachrach averred calmly that analysis of the evidence would show that the defense, in fact, established a "degree of mental disease less than insanity" and that while the state attorneys might have been sincere in their conclusions that no such disease existed, they had not taken proper opportunity to examine their subjects.
Mr. Savage asserted that Leopold and Loeb had drawn their plans so close that if the father had followed directions and gone to a drug store, he would have been sent scurrying to a railroad depot, there to leave a few minutes later.
In the parlor car, the boys had placed a letter addressed to Mr.
Frank and giving full directions on how to throw the money from the train.
They would have reached the de-stinated point in their automobile at that precise moment, if the train were on time," said Mr. Savage. "How could they have been traced? No one knew whence came the telephone call to Mr. Frank, nor who had ordered the cab sent to his home. No one would have known who telephoned the drug store and the father would have had no chance to notify the police in advance of where he had been told to go or how to dispose of the money."
"It was a really intellectual plan,
deliberate in its execution," said Mr.
Savage.

QUARTER OF STATE BONUS MONEY PAID

Bureau Speeds Up Work, With 89-
675 Claims Paid to Date —
Fewer Doubtful Cases

Albany, Aug. 21. — Payment of $11,
600,000 of the $45,000,000 World War bonus by the New York state bonus bureau was made during the first four months completed to date. It was indicated tonight in a report made public by Adjutant General E. J. Westcott. Claims paid to date total $9,675, while the highest numbered claim paid is 100,512, indicating that the bureau has cut by $100 the number in dispute in the last three weeks. The average bonus paid during the period was $120.31.
Although federal records show that $15,000 persons from this state served in either the army or navy, but slightly more than 10,000 bonus
payments have been made.
An average of 2,429 claims a day have been paid in the last 10 days by the state comptroller's office. Settlement of 3,234 claims today by this office established a record, the bonus claims alone being three times the number of audits passed by Comptroller James W. Fleming on any day abandoned to the organization of the bonus bureau.

ROTHENBERG CASE MAY BE REOPENED

New York Officials Confer With Boy's Father; Will Visit
Mrs. Litt

Newark, N. J., Aug. 21. — Assistant Attorney General Clifford of New York, deputized by Governor Smith to investigate the murder last year of seven-year-old Howard Rothenberg, son of a Newark manufacturer, at the family summer home at Windham, N. Y., tonight completed two days of work on the case here and left for Brooklyn, where tomorrow he will question Mrs. Esther Litt, aunt of the murdered boy, who was authentically reported.
It was definitely established that Mr. Clifford today questioned the boy's father, Charles Rothenberg, and 17-year-old Anna Sobin, the nursemaid who figured quite prominently in the case a short time after the lad's body was found.
District Attorney Charles Coffin of Greene county also took part in the questioning. It was learned, although neither of the New York officials would discuss the case. All sessions were cloaked with absolute secrecy.
Mr. Rothenberg admitted that steps were being taken to reopen the case, but other than that refused to talk of the proceedings.

SEVEN KILLED AT 2 ACCIDENTS ON CROSSINGS

Reading Train Derailed as Engine
Hit Five-Ton Truck, Two
Score Being Injured —
Probe Started

Cranford, N. J., Aug. 21. — Union county authorities, working with representatives of the state board of utility commissioners, tonight were preparing to go forward with an investigation into the conditions under which four passengers today lost their lives and nearly two score more were injured when a Philadelphia express train, traveling at the rate of 50 miles an hour, crashed into a five-ton truck, heavily loaded, at a grade crossing here.
The crash caused two of the four cars to overturn after the locomotive broke loose from the train. The engine turned over on the west bound track, blocking traffic in that direction for several hours.
The dead:
Harry Thompson, 24, Cranford,
driver of the truck.
Luther Martin, fireman, Philadelphia.
William Kleyle, Plainfield, railroad
checker at Jersey City.
H. C. Enger, a Glenside, Pa., drug clerk.
Harry Gilbert, engineer, was taken to a hospital with a broken leg.
Three Killed at Blind Crossing.
Plattsburgh, Aug. 21. — Three Rochester people are dead as a result of a grade crossing accident on Rutland railroad at Moores Forks on the Canadian border.
The dead:
George Warfield, 21, Rochester,
the driver.
Mrs. Jennie Frances Warfield, 60, of Clifton Springs, his mother.
Miss Catherine P. Warfield, 30, a sister, said to be connected with the immigration office at Rochester, reported dying from a fracture at the base of the skull.
Earl Shelly, 20, Rochester, is suffering from shock and minor internal injuries.
The accident happened while the Warfield family, which had been touring Canada, were driving toward Malone on their way home. Warfield could not see the approaching freight train bound from Altona to Troups Point. When he heard the train, he jammed on the brakes, but too late to avoid being struck.
Dr. Owen O'Neill, who lives near the scene, gave what aid he could.
Young Warfield died at Chazy while being rushed to the hospital here.
Mrs. Warfield died at 9:15 o'clock tonight at the hospital. Miss Warfield is expected to die momentarily.
Shelly, the only one of the party who is not seriously hurt, is not allowed to talk.

NEW WARNING OF EVILS FROM JAP EXCLUSION ACT

Billion People Recent Act, and Suspicion Will Grow, Dr.
Gulick Declares

Chautauque, Aug. 21. — Another warning of possible evil consequences resulting from the adoption of the Japanese exclusion act and appeal to maintain peace by adequate preparation of the nation's fighting arms, were heard at today's sessions at the Institute on International Relations from the Christian Point of View being held under the auspices of the commission on international justice and good will of the Federal Council of Churches.
Dr. Stanley Gulick, secretary of the commission, and a student of the Orient, spoke on Japan. A billion people, he said, resent the exclusion act and suspicion will grow.
Major General J. G. Harbord, former chief of staff of the army, urged armament for defense only, a consistent foreign policy and co-operation with other nations of the world
for gradual disarmament.
Diplomacy Demonstrated Failure.
He advocated the United States joining in the so-called American or league treaty plan which, he believes,
will minimize the probability of aggressive wars.
"Tragedies of the decade just ended," said General Harbord, "have shown the world the impotency of diplomacy, statesmanship, and international public opinion against economic pressure and the fires of mass hate and fear.
"The colonial futures of Great Britain, France, Holland, and Japan may most vitally affect the United States. Not all the great powers were parties to the Washington conference.
China, Russia, and Germany are potentially in an uncertain state. Giants are stirring restlessly in their slumbers and may be dreaming dreams.
"Our unhappy manner of doing a thing we had a right to do may have lost us the warm friendship of Japan.
Russia, and Germany will not remain
content excluded from the Far East.
Japan has grievances, real and fancied."

REFUSED TO KILL WEEHAWKEN MAYOR

Resumption of "Chicken Puller's"
War Came When Rival Gang
Feared Young's Leadership

New York, Aug. 21. — Weehawken
mayor, Charles Leech, was marked for death by leaders of the "chicken puller" gang of Weehawken, N. J., police, declared today in announcing further developments of their investigation of the murder of James and William Young, brothers, shot down in Eighth avenue yesterday by gangsters who stole upon them in a taxicab.
After consulting with the Weehawken police, local authorities declared they were convinced the killing of the Youngs was connected with the fact that they were to have appeared in a Jersey City court next month as witnesses against three of the gang's leaders, charged with the murder of their elder brother, John.
It now had developed, police said,
that John's murder followed the Young brothers' refusal of $16,000 to kill Mayor Leech, who was said to have angrily refused the suggestion of gang leaders that they be permitted to install and control gambling and bootlegging concessions along the water front. Gang leaders were said to fear that the elder Young, a rival gang power in Weehawken, planned to dispute leadership of the "chicken pullers" with them. William and James Young witnessed the murder of their brother, who was shot down
by gangsters in his Weehawken saloon
last March.

MCCOY WILL BE PARALYZED IN THREE YEARS

Alibi for Defense Blames Excessive Addiction to Alcohol and Blood Infection of Long Standing

Los Angeles, Aug. 21. — Complete paralysis and total dementia will be the fate of Kid McCoy within three years if he escapes the hangman's axe, according to statements tonight to a statement issued by the Los Angeles Times by Dr. Cecilia Steynhold, defense alienist, who today examined the former pugilist in the jail cell where he awaits trial on a charge of murdering Mrs. Theresa Mora here August 12.
McCoy, the Times quotes Dr. Reynolds as saying, is in the incipient stages of paralysis brought on by excessive addiction to alcohol and a blood infection of long standing.
His shooting ory in the Mora antique shop on the morning after Mrs.
Mora's death were "natural manifestations of the disease," according to the doctor.
Smuggled jewelry, thousands of dollars' worth of them, figured in the death of Mrs. Theresa W. Mora, according to statements made tonight
by federal, county and city investigators, working on the case.
Kid McCoy, former pugilist, who was living with Mrs. Mora under an assumed name at the time of her violent death, is held indicted by the county grand jury for murder.
While city and county officers are at work seeking to solve the shooting of the divorced wife of Albert A.
Mora, federal investigators, acting under their cloaks from New York, are attempting to trace "he source and channels of entry into the United States of a fortune in precious stones said to have been in the possession of Mora or his divorced wife.
Two measures of valuables from the Mora strong box already have been made by federal officers, the hauls totalling in value $20,000.
District Attorney Ann Keyes' office has another lot of the Mora jewels.
These, valued at $5,000, disappeared
the night Mrs. Mora died. Her divorced husband charged that they were stolen from her body. Yesterday attorneys for Mrs. Jennie Thomas, sister of Kid McCoy, turned them over to the district attorney, whose office said they had been given to Mrs. Thomas by McCoy the night of Mrs. Mora's death.

A Hero in Blighty

By Feg Murray

CAN YOU IMAGINE OUR OWN BRUNNO RAVING CRICKET?

In England some of the natives have heard of Babe Ruth, even though "she" was "movie actress" a year or so ago. But the heavy hitters of the "fans" of Blighty have about as much of Jack Hobbs, whose picture you see above, Jack made 211 runs in about two hours in a cricket match for England the other day, which won him much publicity and glory. It was his eighth "century" in test matches and his one hundred and seventh in first-class cricket. Hobbs scored more in the time consumed by one baseball game than Ruth did in the whole 1923 season—but then

What are the comparative advantages of the Vardon and Outnet grips?

Answered by BOB CHUCKSBLANK.

Ranmer up in National Open championship, 1923, and the man who, in 1921, defeated Hutchinson, Sarazen and Barnes in an invitation tournament at St. Joseph, Mo. Ranmer up in Pittsburgh tournament for professional golfers, 1922, being defeated only by Sarazen.

These grips allow the roll of the wrist in the following to take place more naturally. The hands are joined together and so work in unison. Finally, they allow the grip to rest in the fingers and so insure a better touch.

However, in the case of the Vardon grip, people with small hands and short fingers would not have so much control as they would with the ordinary palm grip. Outnet's grip does not suit every one either, for it is not used properly, hooking will result to a great extent. Outnet himself plays a slight hook in his long shots. There are many good golfers today and some of them state who use the palm grip. For the average golfer I would advocate that he use the grip most adaptable to himself.

YORK BEATS GIANTS

Joe Clark Pitches Splendid Game for Visitors, But Fails to Keep Hits Scattered

Seven of Oneonta's Closets Wasted Because of Inability to Bring Forth Safe Drive at Needed Time—Krepps, Home Club's Mountsman, Effective Except in Sixth, when All of Giants' Runs Came In—Oneonta Has New Shortstop.

York, Aug. 21. —Joe Clark pitched a splendid game here today but could not keep his hits scattered, and York won a pretty pitchers' duel, 6 to 2.

Oneonta outbit the White Roses with 11 hits to seven, but wasted seven of these hits by failure to come through when men were on bases. Krepps, on the other hand, kept his inning, when the visitors scored all their runs. With two down in the sixth Harner singled to right, Thomas followed with a Texas leaguer to left, Shephardson driving in the pair with a double to center, while Sinstack's triple let Shephardson count the final run for the visitors. Krepps then settled down and pitched air tight.

Two singles, a walk and two sacrifices accounted for York's first two runs. Clark then set the home players down in order for four innings, but shipped again in the sixth when a single, sacrifice, and Werre's single opened the eighth. Steffen singled to right and stole second, both scoring on Elliott's double to left. Elliott and Fitch played stellar ball in the infield while Dougherty and Thomas pulled down some pretty catches in the outfield.

Recently three boys were expelled from the Gerry summer camp for boys at Lake Delaware. They were given transportation to New York City, but in a few days turned up again at the camp, having hiked it most of the way from the city. They were drummed out of camp, but it was soon discovered that they were making their headquarters in an unoccupied house not far from the camp. The sheriff was notified of their whereabouts and in the middle of the night Under Sheriff Stewart gained entrance to their abode and found them all sound asleep. He also discovered they had been trifling on some of the post-boxes and others and milk houses and were quite well provided with milk, butter and provision. He ordered them to drive, as he was about to conduct them to the Delaware county jail. After a conference he told them if they would leave the county in the morning and return to their homes he would not arrest them. It was found that next day

LOCAL MENTION

The Station Stars play the All Stars in a Twilight League game at 8:30 o'clock this evening, at Madison park.

A new concrete traffic dummy was placed yesterday at the corner of Chestnut and Main streets. The dummy is to be used in the training of new drivers.

Keston's Oneonta band goes to Bloomsburg this evening, where a concert will be given. The occasion is a clam bake to be given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of that village.

On Sunday last the River Street Baptist church and Christian Endeavor society passed resolutions disapproving of Sunday baseball in this city and asking that the permission granted for such games be revoked.

Twelve cars were tagged on Main street yesterday afternoon by Officer Crouch for infractions of the city traffic ordinance. Visitors are to be shown every consideration until they have become familiar with the regulations.

THEY NEED HELP

State Employment Bureau at Chamber of Commerce Offices Have Calls for Every Description of Service.

"We need help" is the cry of the State Employment bureau at the Chamber of Commerce offices, "so if you need work we can help you."

Certainly many are familiar with the work of the State Employment bureau at the Chamber of Commerce offices. It is surprising to many in Oneonta to know that the demand for labor in this territory far exceeds the supply and that there are listed a large number of positions at that office ranging from farm and domestic help through office assistants to salesmen.

At the time the Chamber of Commerce undertook the bureau there was apparently a number of unemployed persons in the city, but still more apparent during the past few months is the fact that there is opportunity right in this vicinity for all those who seek work.

It is urged by Secretary MacEwan of the Chamber of Commerce, also in charge of the bureau, that all those who are availing themselves of the services of the office keep him frequently informed of conditions that his records may be kept up to date.

Dinner for Mr. Tallmadge

This evening at the Oneonta Country club resident and vicinity members of the Senate, a debating society existing in Oneonta a quarter of a century ago, will have a dinner, the event being in honor of T. D. Tallmadge, the New York artist, who is paying a visit to old-time friends here. An enjoyable evening is anticipated and doubtless many incidents of former days when the Senate discussed and passed upon all matters which the upper house of congress should have acted upon.

Trolley Employees to Picnic

The third annual picnic of the employees and management of the Southern New York railway is to be held at Hartwick on Friday, Aug. 23rd. Field games with suitable prizes are announced for 3:30 p. m. with supper served at 4 p. m. Dancing is to follow. Cars are to leave Hartwick for both Oneonta and Mohawk at the close of the festivities.

Oneonta Merchants to Meet

A special meeting of the Oneonta Merchants' association has been called for the Chamber of Commerce offices this morning at 9:30 o'clock, to discuss the observance of National Defense day in this city. President F. B. Carr requests all members who possibly can to attend.

RECRUIT FOR DEFENSE

Captain Louis M. Baker Explains Purpose and Scope of Defense Test Day to be Held Throughout the Country on September 12, and a Plan for Greater Interest in the Affairs of the Local National Guard Company were discussed in a splendid address given at yesterday's luncheon of Oneonta Rotary club by Captain Louis M. Baker, commanding officer of Company G, Tenth Regiment, N. Y. N. G.

Captain Baker spoke very frankly concerning the several aspects of the subject and gave his hearers a great deal to think about.

Captain Baker gave the Rotarians an idea of the War department's desires in regard to the observance of the day by reading from his official orders, which call for the mobilization on September 12 of all units of the Regular Army, National Guard and Organized Reserves and suggest holding in each place where mobilization occurs a suitable patriotic program. He explained the necessity of such a mobilization by pointing out the failure of the War department to raise, equip and train an effective fighting force until a year after the entrance of this country into the World war. Mobilizations are to be the character of the country into the World war. He explained the necessity of such a mobilization by pointing out the failure of the War department to raise, equip and train an effective fighting force until a year after the entrance of this country into the World war. He explained the necessity of such a mobilization by pointing out the failure of the War department to raise, equip and train an effective fighting force until a year after the entrance of this country into the World war.

He derided jingoism but pointed out the military preparations being made by other countries, notably Japan and France, and said that this country would be totally unprepared to protect itself unless steps were taken to put into effect a system of adequate national defense.

In his appeal for greater interest on the part of residents of the city in the affairs of Company G he pointed with pride to the enviable reputation of the outfit. After the 1925 tour of field duty the Tenth Regiment was declared to be the best infantry regiment in the National Guard of the entire country, the second battalion, of which Company G is a part, was rated first in the regiment, and Company G was placed third of the four companies in that battalion. The rating on this year's tour of field duty has not been announced but Captain Baker believes that the regiment and battalion will maintain their positions and that Company G will be found to have advanced in efficiency. At the winter muster and inspection Company G was given the highest mark possible and was the only company in the second battalion to receive that grade.

RIFLE AND REVOLVER CLUB

Will Formally Open Its New Indoor Range on Broad Street on Evening of September 1.

The formal opening of the Oneonta Rifle and Revolver club's indoor range in the basement under 17 Broad street will take place Labor day evening, September 1, and officials of the club are making great preparations for the event. The public is cordially invited to inspect the range at that time and a good time is assured everyone who attends.

The members of the club have been working for some weeks getting the range in readiness and a great deal has been accomplished by their efforts. There will be an outside entrance opening onto Broad street. Partitions have been erected in the basement and a room for meetings and where members can congregate while awaiting their turns to shoot has been constructed. The range itself is 50 feet long and shooting can be done prone, kneeling, sitting, off-hand or in any manner desired.

The targets are placed against a solidly constructed barrier, behind which is a foot of sand. Steel plates back the targets themselves and provide covering for all operators to the outside at the rear of the range. There is hence little danger of a bullet getting outside of the building. There are two lights on each side of each target.

The club owns a target rifle and a pistol and a supply of ammunition will be secured. Both straight and novelty matches will be shot.

PLAYS BRILLIANT GOLF

S. F. McKean of Oneonta Among Leaders at Cooperstown Tournament.

Playing the difficult 18 hole course in exactly par, S. F. McKean, acknowledged to be the best golf player in Oneonta, won his first round yesterday in the annual tournament of the Cooperstown Country club. Mr. McKean was paired against Mr. Savage, Sr., of Baltimore, and defeated him nine up and eight to go. For the course is 35 out and 37 in and Mr. McKean made it in 37 out and 35 in. The course is a very hard one and Mr. McKean was forced to play a superb golf to make it in par.

Mr. McKean was accompanied to Cooperstown by Kenneth Goldthwaite, Russell E. Brigham, George Ward and Eugene L. Ward of Oneonta and Howard Smith of Brooklyn, who is visiting in the city. Mr. Smith won his match, while Mr. Ward and Mr. Ward were defeated.

Two rounds will be played today and tomorrow the finals will occur.

SHOWING A PROFIT

Kalo Battery Company's Output for July Over $12,000, Making $900

WORKING CAPITAL NEEDED

Reports of Officers Most Encouraging as to Outlook, But They Frankly Admit That Original Outlay for Building and Machinery Left No Capital With Which to Finance Operations—If That Need Can be Supplied Success of Company, Assured Says President Brannaman.

Sales made by the Oneonta Storage Battery corporation during the month of July totaled over $12,000, showing a profit of operation for the month of approximately $900 and the sales for the present month will equal if not exceed those of the previous month, was one of the encouraging statements made by President Brannaman to stockholders at a conference held with them at the offices of the Chamber of Commerce last night, a which there was a representative attendance and much enthusiasm manifested relative to the future of the company.

The meeting was called for the purpose of acquainting stockholders with the actual conditions of the company at the present time and to correct in their minds at least current reports relative to the affairs of the company and its outlook for the future. There have been circulated, apparently with malicious intent, rumors that the company would discontinue operations and liquidate, whereas the company has never had brighter prospects than at the present time.

President Brannaman also stated to those present that the concern now has some 420 service stations, all but perhaps a score of which are active and have sent repeat orders, many of them adding favorable comments made by users. This result has been attained despite the fact that the company, lacking working capital, has not had any salesmen calling upon the proprietors of these service stations and with practically no advertising to create a demand for the Kalo.

Admission was made by the officers very frankly that some mistakes have been made and that the sales agency established last year in New York city had proven an unfortunate move and that the company at the outset, had expended too rapidly at first, building and equipping the fine plant, but leaving it without working capital with which to finance current operations.

The company is handicapped now, Mr. Brannaman explained, by the fact that it now is obliged to use receipts for current sales to meet old obligations instead of in the production of new batteries or in securing new service stations or in promoting new business.

The situation as outlined practically crystallized into three steps now open to the company. One would be liquidation, which is impossible, with so good a product and so handsome return upon batteries sold. The second would be to continue as for the past few months which, while it would show steady growth, would prevent the company getting on a dividend basis for months and not even approaching the opportunity now within its grasp.

The third policy, the one which seemed to meet with the approval of the majority present, is to provide the company with additional capital with which to finance operations, so that production can be maintained steadily to meet the demand of the peak months now approaching, and with which to purchase materials at the most favorable prices and take advantage of the best discounts.

Those present were not asked, at the meeting, to subscribe to any additional stock, but were requested to give their whole-hearted moral support to their own business, to correct the false rumors being circulated relative to the affairs of the company and to become boosters of the Kalo battery, as the best battery being manufactured.

It was urged with appealing force that if everyone in this territory would become boosters for Kalo, and if those who can would purchase one or more shares of the stock, Oneonta would see an industry develop that would in a few months be second to none.

Oneonta citizens who have been constantly asking why the city does not secure some thriving industry to give an impetus to the community, have the answer in their own hands, an answer which everyone can make. It was pointed out, and secure thereby a share in the prosperity of the company and also promote the commercial growth of the city, in which also they will reap a handsome return, for the comparatively small investment from each the project now requires.

BIG MUSICAL COMEDY

"Pennsylvania Twelve" with "Vanity Box" at Oneonta Theatre.

"Vanity Box," George E. Wint's big road breaking musical comedy which set New Yorkers in a whirl of jest and merriment, comes to the Oneonta theatre one night Monday, August 25th.

The cast is composed of many well known actors, among them the petite French comedienne Mimi Soud, the Ritz Mimi girl, a small bundle of vivacity whose work gives one a thrill of pleasure, while the "nut" comedian, Hal Kewer, will take you all on a trip through Loughland.

The plot is deftly woven with a wild riot of jazz, pop, melody, laughter and fun, which is interrupted with rousing numbers, color, drama, romance and everything else that goes into the making of a big musical comedy.

Another pleasing feature with this company will be the "Radio Revue," a chorus of exceptional beauty, speed, and action.

NEW ORDINANCE INTERPRETED

Message Adopted by City Council on July 24th, 1934, Relating to the Interpretation of the New City Ordinance Relating to Motor Traffic at Certain Street Corners in the Opposed Business Section.

The Star has received a letter from City Judge Lee D. VanWoert, which clears up the intention of the framers of the new city ordinance relative to motor traffic at certain street corners in the opposed business section. At this office the conclusion was reached that the two sentences of Section 8 of the ordinance were designed to prohibit different movements; and, while the contention of Mr. VanWoert is correct, the ordinance in its present form is liable to misinterpretation and it should state that the second sentence is explanatory of the first.

Mr. VanWoert writes as follows: Editor Star: The article appearing in yesterday's Star, reporting the proposed changes in traffic regulation, has resulted in a general misapprehension as to the meaning of the ordinance. There is nothing whatever in Section 8 prohibiting so-called "left-turns," either directly or by implication. The word "left-turn" does not appear in the ordinance. Unfortunately, a hasty conclusion was reached that the word "reverse-turn" meant a turn to the left. Such was not intended and such is not the case. All that was intended and all that is prohibited is a complete turning around. The well-accepted common meaning of the word "reverse" as well as its dictionary definition and its derived meaning is to "turn back."

The ordinance was not prepared by me but, because of my natural interest in Oneonta's traffic problem and the work I did as a member of the traffic survey committee in June, the article mentioned has resulted in my being besieged by those who properly criticize an arbitrary prohibition of all left hand turns on Main street. I believe the difficulty is due to the second sentence of Section 8, which is substantially a definition of the first sentence and might well be omitted from the section.

Under date of June 14th the traffic committee recommended various changes in the present ordinance. The particular portion of the ordinance in question follows the recommendation of the traffic committee, which was as follows: "The turning of vehicles to the left, across the current of traffic, is common cause of minor accidents and congestion. Many cities have passed drastic rules prohibiting such left turns. The irregular plan of Oneonta streets, however, seems to practically prohibit any similar regulation without serious disruption of established business and custom. Left turns, constituting a half circle for the purpose of reversing direction, on Main street, may well be prohibited at Ford avenue, Broad, Dietz and Grove streets. Such turns are comparatively safely executed at Market, Chestnut and Elm streets."

It must, therefore, be quite clear that half turns to the left were never intended to be prohibited and in fact were not so treated in the ordinance. Very truly yours, Lee D. VanWoert.

To The Parents Of The Boys Of Oneonta

In these days when unskilled labor is receiving high wages while many with education and training—teachers for example—are poorly paid, it is easy for a boy to be superficial, thinking to conclude that it is better to go to work than to go to school.

But these times are not normal!

Gradually the readjustment will take place and the law of supply and demand brings about normal conditions!

The probability is that in the future more than at any time in the past the abilities born of education and training will be in demand and will command a high price.

Frank A. Vanderlip, in an address at Grand College, said in this connection: "The mental equipment of a business man needs to be greater today than was ever before necessary."

In every line of life it is the men with ability who are outstripping their fellows.

By the power of a trained mind man multiplies the usefulness and earning power of his hands many fold.

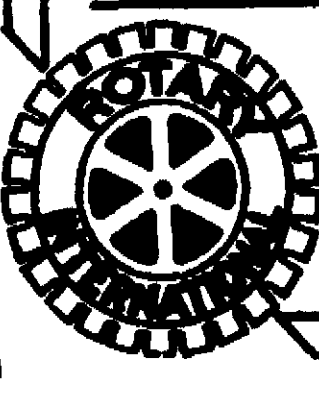

Professor A. Caswell Ellis, who made an exhaustive investigation for the United States Government into the subject of the MONEY VALUE OF EDUCATION, has pointed out that—

"The savage can fasten only a dozen pounds on his back and swim the river. When he is educated enough to make an axe, fell a tree and build a raft, he can carry many times a dozen pounds. As soon as he learns to rip logs into boards and build a boat he multiplies his power a hundred fold; and when he adds mathematics, chemistry, physics and other modern sciences he can produce the monster Leviathans that defy wind, storm and distance and bear to the uttermost parts of the earth burdens a million times greater than the uneducated savage could carry across the narrow river."

Education brings not only added material blessings but it increases the power to serve ones fellow men and, while it is natural and right to build up the ability to make money, it is a serious mistake to lose sight of the fact that the unselfish service of others is one of the surest, means of bringing happiness and satisfaction to oneself.

For both of these purposes education is of vital importance. Give your boy—your children—the best education that it is within your power to give and when you shall have reached the limits of your financial ability, inspire your boy to earn his way.

But Be Satisfied With Nothing Less For Your Children Than a Complete Education

PLIGHT OF ARMENIANS

(Communicated.)

Editor Star:

The plight of the Armenians in the Near East is almost as desperate today as it was under Abdul Hamid, except that there are now very few of that persecuted people living under the rule of the Turkish Nationalists.

The Armenians who survive are largely exiles. A hundred thousand of them have taken temporary refuge in Greece. They have seen all their hopes of a national home under American protection vanish as the whole structure of Turkish settlement was destroyed. The promises made to them so profusely three years ago are now as worthless as the paper on which was written the Treaty of Sevres.

But they have not been altogether abandoned. The League of Nations is settling a small number of them near Erivan, Russia. The American Near East Relief is caring for nearly 50,000 Armenian orphans, exemplifying the principles and teachings of the Golden Rule.

The present condition of the Armenian refugees dispersed throughout the Near East is extremely unstable, and it constitutes a serious reproach to all the powers which failed to fulfill their solemn promises. Over 100,000 of these exiles are now in Greece but the League of Nations has just served notice on the world that early evacuation of these Armenians will be necessary owing to Greece's lack of space and of money to support them. Greece has offered assistance in transporting them up to an amount of $300,000.

The American people, through the Near East Relief, can help to see that this situation, a perennial disaster as it is now possible. But the work of our relief organization is being seriously handicapped by lack of funds, and even its present orphanage work will have to be curtailed unless additional contributions are forthcoming.

BROADER CO-OPERATION

INDIANA DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE URGES CO-OPERATION OF COMMUNITIES, RATHER THAN OF CLASSES.

Grand of Nearly 4,000 at Delanson County Fair at Delhi Yesterday. Many Thousands of Farmers on Co-operation as Feature of Event—Speeches on Farming, Banking, and Ball Game Among Amusements.

Delhi, Aug. 21.—"Today there can be no such thing as an independent farmer," said G. I. Christy, extension director of agriculture of the state of Indiana, this afternoon in an address before about 3,000 Delaware county farmers assembled in this village for their annual picnic. He continued:

"Our grandfathers and grandmothers were independent farmers. They cut timber for their lands and built their homes and barns, made their own sugar, spun and wove their own clothes, cured their own meats, and they all were happy in so doing."

"But the explosion of this change has in the fact that they did not have to even think of union wages, nor of the tariff on cane sugar and a host of other concerns of the farmer of today."

The sun having dispelled the clouds of the night before, a beautiful summer's day greeted those attending the annual county picnic assembled today at the State school grounds, 308 feet above this village, with a beautiful and entrancing landscape spread out before them, this latter feature being fully worthy of a trip to the site, without the additional inducement of the hand, community singing, a baseball game, fairmen's league ice cream, and the excellent speeches.

Congressman John D. Clarke of the 24th New York congressional district presided in his usual genial manner and his presence added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. Inevitably was well worded by Rev. Marvin J. Thompson of Troy, a Delaware county boy and a graduate of Delaware Academy.

The Delhi band provided music in up-to-date concert style, and "America," "Long Long Trail," and "Onward, Christian Soldiers" were sung by the assembly, led by Congressman Clarke and Harry Friebbe.

Without disparagement to any it may safely be said that two of the most popular of the program were musical selections by Miss Mary Lewis, accompanied by Miss Grace Graham, both of Delhi. "Mary Kept a Dairy," which is a gem in itself and very appropriate for the occasion, was one of these and was charmingly given by Miss Lewis.

The speech of the day, by Mr. Christy, excerpts of which are found above, had as its main theme co-operation, but he demonstrated by forceful demonstrations and experience that co-operation must not be by farmers as an independent body, but by farmers as a community must work together.

One of the most amusing incidents of the day was a milk-drinking contest between Congressman Clarke, Prof. DuBois, and H. C. McKeane of Walton. The fluid was contained in pop bottles fitted with nipples and the contestants were asked after their object in the old-fashioned way. The congressman won the event amidst the applause of the throng.

The most interesting athletic event for a majority of the people, Maudie took the final round from Walton in a close and thrilling contest by a score of 20-21.

Later in the afternoon Davenport and Elk Creek engaged in a baseball game.

MRS. ALFRED HILLER DIES.

Native of Hartwick Seminary and Wife of Former Principal.

The death of Mrs. Henrietta S. Hiller, aged 90 years, widow of the Rev. Alfred Hiller, occurred Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred L. Windsor, 18 Spruce street, Ithaca.

She was born at Hartwick Seminary on October 18, 1834, and spent the greater part of her life in that vicinity, where she was a member of the Lutheran church. In spite of her advanced years, Mrs. Hiller kept abreast of the times and possession of her faculties to a remarkable degree.

She is survived by seven children: Mrs. William Dufford, Mineola, Kan.; Prof. R. H. Hiller, Springfield, O.; Mrs. Mary E. Benson, Springfield, O.; Dr. J. L. Hiller, New York; the Rev. C. B. Hiller, Albany; Mrs. Fred L. Windsor, Ithaca; and J. P. Hiller, Fort Plain.

Prayer services were held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Windsor, 18 Spruce street, Wednesday morning, after which the remains were taken to Hartwick Seminary, where services were held from the Lutheran church at 2 o'clock that afternoon.

Mrs. Hiller was a daughter of Dr. George B. Hiller, who for many years was at the head of the Hartwick Seminary. She was a woman of fine attainments and her death will be greatly mourned.

Happy Feet Make Better Senators

If the youngsters have been permitted to wear old, loose shoes a lot throughout the summer, be very careful about crowding their feet back into shoes they wore to school last spring. Remember that there's both spreading and natural growth (which is rapid) to consider. It's better, and safer, to get new shoes, perfectly fitted by a conscientious shoe man.

DEFENSE TEST AS OBJECT LESSON

Secretary of War Says Plans for Sept. 12 Do Not Call for General Mobilization.

By JOHN W. WEEKS,
Secretary of War.

Washington.—The event to take place on September 12 will not be a "general mobilization." A mobilization would mean the bringing to war strength, in men, animals and material, of the armed forces of the nation. Our military establishment will not be increased for an instant on September 12. The "defense test" will be only a demonstration of mobilization plans. It will be an endeavor on the part of the federal government to inform our people as fully as possible on the present status of our security.

Our whole purpose is to present to this country the new citizen army of the United States and to indicate what action would have to be taken in a national emergency by our individual citizens, and by communities, if our country is to be defended successfully. The simple demonstration planned might be compared to a fire drill in a school for the safety of the children. Just as fire escapes and exits are of little value if the children do not know how to use them, so also are the best plans for our safety, if our people do not know what the plans are, and what they should do in a crisis. We firmly believe that our action is in the interest of more intelligent citizenship.

Purely for Defense.

We are able to take this forward step because our plans are purely for defense, and their object for peace. We therefore need not keep them secret. Our test will enable not only our own people, but all peoples, to visualize our proposed plan of mobilization. Open defense plans openly arrived at are merely a practical extension of the principles underlying open diplomacy.

In so far as there is any foundation for the assumption that people are frequently induced to war-like acts without realizing the consequences of those acts, the "defense test" will be a precautionary measure. Everyone will be made aware of the sacrifices which war will require of him.

The "defense test," on the other hand, will apprise the world as words never can of our friendly purposes as a nation. They will see that we have neither a standing army of half a million men like some of the great nations, nor compulsory military training like other great nations. They will see a small standing army, reinforced only by citizens who have undertaken to prepare themselves voluntarily for service to their country in the event of war. As a matter of fact, some of those who object to our simple demonstration could well use it as an object lesson for all nations.

Of Practical Value.

From a military standpoint the "defense test" will be of practical value. It will be educational to both the military establishment and to our citizens. We have tried to learn from the lessons of the World war. From them we have evolved our present plans which appertain our defense task equally among all communities. Their object is to save millions of dollars and thousands of lives, and to prevent wastage through delay and confusion in a defensive war. They are dependent for success, however, on each community understanding its particular responsibilities, and on the co-operative effort of all. Explanation and demonstration are necessary; hence, the "defense test."

I would like to emphasize that I am striving for peace, and that in common with all Americans I desire it most sincerely. My observation has brought the conviction that such is also the purpose of General Pershing and of all members of the army of the United States. But the promotion of peace is not secured by the denial of the lessons of history. Our country has always refrained during peace from adequate preparation against the possibilities of war. Nevertheless, wars have come in spite of us. Unpreparedness has never prevented war, and the only result of our peace-time nonchalance has been increased losses and hardships to those of our citizens who rallied to the defense of the nation.

"Wired Wireless" Proves Success in Coal Mines

Springfield, Ill.—Feasibility of the establishment of communication between underground mine workers and the surface through the development of the line radio, or "wired wireless," is given further impetus as the result of tests conducted in several Illinois mines.

The "wired wireless" utilizes trailing wires, mine tracks, compressed air and water piping, and similar conductors for voice transmission.

In tests conducted in a coal mine 400 feet deep no difficulty was experienced on the surface in receiving radio messages from a car mounted upon a mine locomotive, so long as the apparatus was in the vicinity of the mine car. Experiments show that the range in the average coal mine is only a few hundred feet when no conductors are present, but may be several thousand feet when operating in proximity to metal carriers.

The Anderson Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Anderson family was held yesterday afternoon at the pavilion in Wilbur Park. There were about 50 members of the family present, and the day was very pleasantly spent by all. Dinner was served at 1 p. m. and there was community singing, led by Rev. Harlow Parsons, of Franklin, and duets admirably given by Mr. and Mrs. Parsons.

At the business meeting B. W. Anderson of Gilbertsville was re-elected president; Homer Anderson of Oneonta, vice president; and Thora B. Anderson of this city, secretary and treasurer. It was also voted to hold next year's picnic at the same place, on the third Thursday in August. Among those in attendance were members of the family from Franklin, Gilbertsville, Oneonta, Maryland and Oneonta.

Full Sale of Meridale Jerseys.

Dairymen in Otsego and Delaware counties, as well as throughout the country, will be interested in the full sale of Meridale Jerseys, which will be held Saturday of next week—August 30—at the Meridale farms. There are fifty animals to be placed on sale, most of them carefully selected by the Meridale Farms purchaser on the island of Jersey, and others the fine product of the farms.

Lunch will be served at 11:30 o'clock on the day of sale, and the sale itself begins at 12:30. Automobiles will meet all trains at Oneonta, Delhi and Bloomsburg on the evening of August 29 and the morning of August 30.

Catch Plan to Establish

Prague as Air Capital
Prague.—The third international aircraft exhibition recently concluded here, served to emphasize the effort of the Czechoslovak government to make this city a center of European air travel on both the north-south and east-west routes, already in operation or contemplated.

English, French and German firms were among the 50 exhibitors. Mr. Siba, the minister of public works, in an address at the opening said that the movement to make Prague the junction for European air routes was gaining ground and it was now only a question of the conclusion of suitable treaties between the various states.

A new route between Bremen and Warsaw-Cracow is soon to be established and a great airfield is to be built.

May Abolish Previous Service Rule.

Sergeant Harry Diener of the local recruiting station stated yesterday that so few enlistments had been made for the United States army since the War Department order prohibiting the enrollment of men with no previous military service that he expected that within the next few weeks the enlistment bars would again be removed.

A list of eligible applicants is being kept by Sergeant Diener, however, and any man who wish to apply now will receive a thorough examination and will be the first enrolled when the previous service rule is eliminated.
